The change is to the disadvantage of Dist Judges, as a 3rd cl. Judge under present rule becomes a 2nd cl. Judge after 2 years. Seeing the comparative salaries paid elsewhere & prospects of ~~Dist~~ Judl Offrs, perhaps it may be left as it is. I'd like this to be considered at a meeting if the Dewan pleases.

Modification of para XV of the Civil Service Rules of 1907 relating to the classification of District Judges rendered necessary by the recent addition of ~~the~~ a third District Judgeship that of Bangalore.

Opinion of the Council.

The rule may be modified as follows:-

Three District Judges

First class one on Rs.1,200.

Second class one on Rs.1,000.

Third class one on Rs. 800.

The remarks about a District Judge rising from one grade to another after a service of not less than two years &c may be omitted; so that a District Judge may rise from one grade to another on the occurrence of vacancies and not by efflux of time.

GBB—20,000—20-1-12

Submitted to His Highness.

The accompanying papers relate to the modification of para XV of the Civil Service Rules of 1907 relating to the classification of District Judges.

2. At the time the Civil Service Rules of 1907 were passed there were only two District Judges and it was provided that a District Judge should rise from one class to another after a service of not less than two years in each class, provided there should not be more than one officer in the first class at any one time.

3. Recently another District Judgeship has been constituted in Bangalore and the existing rule has therefore to be modified. The Council Resolution may accordingly be accepted. The draft Civil Service Rules now under submission have been brought up to date in this respect.
